Auditor's Report

January 19, 1937

To the Citizens of Whately:

In accordance with arrangements made following the 1936 Annual Town Meeting, certain changes have been made in the methods of paying bills and issuing orders on the Treasurer, so that more complete and accurate records may be available. Your Auditor was appointed to act as bookkeeper for the Board of Selectmen and all bills have gone through his hands before being paid. This has tended to avoid overdrafts of appropriations, and has enabled us to get transfers made before the bills were paid instead of later as in the past.

I have also set up and operated a complete set of ledger accounts, based upon the State system, although somewhat simplified, and this enables me to present a Balance Sheet showing the condition of the Towns' finances as of December 31st, 1936, which is appended to this report.

A final check shows that the Treasurer has paid orders as follows:

Selectmen's orders	$47,233.89
School Committee's orders	22,133.03
	<hr/>	$69,366.92

All orders drawn have been paid, and I find in the Treasury and due the Town of Whately, December 31st, 1936, the sum of $2,806.30

There were outstanding unpaid bills as follows:

Public Welfare	$	295.56
W.P.A. Material		15.25
Highway (1934)		28.60
Town Counsel		86.28
	<hr/>	$	425.69

My check of the Tax Collector's records, shows that the following taxes are uncollected, as of December 31, 1936:

1933 Motor Vehicle	$ 88.91	$ 88.91
1934 Property	$ 88.47
1934 Motor Vehicle	207.87
	<hr/>	$ 296.34
1935 Property	$ 5,157.87
1935 Poll	109.32
1935 Motor Vehicle	388.38
	<hr/>	5,655.57
1936 Property	$10,176.11
1936 Poll	240.00
1936 Motor Vehicle	921.36
	<hr/>	11,337.47
Total Outstanding		$17,378.29

The Treasurer holds Tax Title Deeds amounting to a total of $2,436.11.

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL F. FIELD

Superintendent of Schools

To the Whately School Committee:

I am pleased to submit to you herewith my 10th annual report as Superintendent of Schools.

During the coming year the Commonwealth of Massachusetts will give proper recognition to the 100th anniversary of the appointment of Horace Mann as its Secretary of the Board of Education in 1837. During his 25 years of public life devoted to the interests of Massachusetts citizens his efforts and accomplishments gained for him the well-earned title of "Father of the Common School." In spite of opposition and even abuse he won for the youth of Massachusetts the right to free elementary education and for himself a world-wide and eternal fame.

In one of his impassioned speeches of that day he declared, "The property of this Commonwealth is pledged for the education of all its youth, up to such a point as will save them from poverty and vice, and prepare them for the adequate performance of their social and civil duties." His vision was farsighted. Though a century has passed, these objectives of education are in no way changed. In all its social and civil implications his statement of the goals of education has no improvement to this day. In no uncertain terms he committed the State to the maintenance of a free public school system for all youth within its borders. It is our task and our privilege to carry out his ideal with all its adaptations to present day needs.

* * * * *

Despite unfavorable weather conditions and flooding waters excellent progress was made in the Whately

Schools during the year. New books and materials and other improved physical conditions in the schools had their influence in maintaining morale and desirable standards.

Attention to repairs and working materials has been one of the policies this year. Refinishing of desks, replacement of shades, cleaning and painting of basements, playrooms and sanitariums have made the school buildings of Whately safe, pleasant and satisfactory for their purposes.

Early in the year the schools lost the services of Mrs. Argie L. Strippe on account of severe illness which resulted in her death late in May. Mrs. Strippe had rendered faithful and life-long service to the schools of Whately influencing for good the lives of hundreds of children by her patient and untiring interest in their progress and welfare. Her devotion to her duties did not slacken even with the approach of ill health, and she maintained a cheerful and lively interest in the affairs of the pupils and her associates until her departure.

Mrs. Dorothy MacKay was appointed substitute during Mrs. Strippe's illness and was later elected to a regular position. The replacement of music supervision early in the year was a forward step from our period of drastic retrenchments.

New and modern geography texts have been adopted in the fifth and sixth grades and new history texts placed in the sixth grade. The work in arithmetic is being adapted to meet a somewhat revised course of study in this subject. The books now in use are well-worn and a new text will be recommended and selected to conform more closely with the revised course now being generally adopted in the schools. We have been able to add to our books and materials in our primary classes and in the music courses.

The registration of pupils in our elementary schools will not change materially in the next two or three years in spite of a diminishing birth rate (see last page). The revival of business may somewhat reduce the attendance among older pupils in high schools. I approve of the increase in attendance in vocational classes among our older boys and girls. While the cost is somewhat increased thereby, such opportunity is a justifiable expenditure. I am hoping that a larger number than heretofore will remain in school to complete their courses. The selection of vocational courses reduced slightly the number of pupils attending high schools this year, as is shown by tabulations on other pages of this report. In June eight pupils were graduated from Deerfield High School, one from Northampton High School and one from Smith's School. Twenty-four pupils completed the eighth grade in June, most of whom entered other schools this fall. Approximately the same number are expected to complete the elementary grades this year.

The Parent-Teacher Association again entertained our pupils at Christmas time with an appropriate program. The aims of this organization are worthy of the support of all interested in the instruction and welfare of our school children.

The total expenditures this year amounted to $22,133.03 and all bills were paid to date. Receipts on account of schools were $8,382.81, leaving a net cost to the town for all schools of $13,750.22. There were increases this year in amounts paid for repairs and vocational education. For the latter it was necessary to transfer $175 from the regular school appropriation to the vocational account. There were substantial decreases in the amounts paid for high school tuitions, and elementary and high school transportation.

I am consistently recommending a return to our former salary schedules. Teachers are now receiving but little more than the salary paid beginning teachers several years ago. Surely after a teacher has been found competent some recognition should be given increased experience in her work. Some form of State certification of teachers is sure to come soon. This will result in classification for various grades and forms of school work which will make the selection of teachers more complex than at the present time.

I desire to endorse recommendations of the school nurse for screens in our school room windows. The nuisance from flies in the spring and fall months is often scarcely tolerable. Your attention is called to the reports of the school nurse and music supervisor and to the various tabulations on other pages of this report.

Mrs. Janes and I are deeply appreciative of the patience and tolerance of teachers and school officials during my recent illness. The many displays of friendly interest did much toward a rapid and complete recovery.

Respectfully submitted,

MARVIN E. JANES

Superintendent of Schools

Supervisor of Music

Mr. Marvin E. Janes
Superintendent of Schools
Deerfield, Mass.

Dear Sir:

I herewith submit to you my fourth report as Supervisor of Music in the Town of Whately.

In June of the year 1933 it was decided for economic reasons to dispense with the Music Supervisor in the public schools, and that the grade teachers would continue with the music course as outlined. At the annual town meeting in 1935, it was voted that supervision in the music department be resumed, and in March I took on the work in that capacity.

In the primary grades, the children are learning how to use their singing voices and are memorizing a repertoire of folk tunes. Singing games are an important phase in the outline for the year, and by stressing rhythm in these games, there is built up in each child a definite background of physical as well as tonal experience.

The chance to take an active part in the music period is given to the pupils of Junior High School age, who, because of a temporary and partial loss of their singing voice, might otherwise lose out entirely on any musical development during that age. These pupils are being taught the art of conducting. It provides a rhythm foundation, enlists pupil leadership and prepares them for the High School Glee Club.

In the East School a Girls' Glee Club is being organized. This consists of those girls from the grades six through eight who voluntarily join through a desire to build up a love and appreciation of good music.

I am pleased with the work being done and thank the teachers for their effort.

Respectfully submitted,

ANN M. GILLERN

Supervisor of Music

School Nurse

Mr. Marvin E. Janes
Superintendent of Schools
Whately, Massachusetts

My dear Mr. Janes:

At the dental clinic held early in the year, forty-two children were given one hundred treatments. Nineteen children received dental certificates for completed work. This fall eighteen were awarded certificates because no dental work was needed.

Care of two children at Health Camp was given for three weeks. Christmas Health Seals aid in giving this care.

We are indebted to Miss Juliet A. Whitteker, R.N., Consultant in Public Health Nursing for bringing to our pupils moving pictures on posture, food, daily health care, and feet, twice during the last year.

Talks to the pupils and material for the teachers have been given.

With the protection from diphtheria given to sixteen more children last spring, ninety-seven per cent of the school population has been so protected. No let up in this program should take place as new, unprotected children enter school each year.

Increasingly, as parents realize the importance of protecting babies at six months, the number of unprotected, entering children should be decreased.

Five children have had tonsilectomies during the last year. Unless there are serious symptoms denoting diseased tonsils, no effort is made to have large tonsils removed.

Special efforts to secure diagnosis and expert care have been made for the few children needing this extra attention.

Routine inspection, weighing, and assistance given the school physician in his examinations are each year a part of our program.

Concern over postural defects has prompted a close check on seats and desks.

The need of screens is still paramount, since flies carry disease and are a menace to the health and comfort of children and teachers.

I am grateful to you and to everyone who has assisted in promoting better health for the school children.

Respectfully submitted,

ELSIE F. SMITH, R.N.

School Nurse
